Contents

- 1 Statement by Incoming Editors
 - 3 B. M. Besly and J. D. Collinson. Volcanic and tectonic controls of lacustrine and alluvial sedimentation in the Stephanian coal-bearing sequence of the Malpás-Sort Basin, Catalanian Pyrenees
 - 27 R. W. Simm, P. P. E. Weaver, R. B. Kidd and E. J. W. Jones. Late Quaternary mass movement on the lower continental rise and abyssal plain off Western Sahara
 - 41 Jonathan Kaufman, Gilbert N. Hanson and William J. Meyers. Dolomitization of the Devonian Swan Hills Formation, Rosevear Field, Alberta, Canada
 - 67 Robert H. Goldstein. Stable isotope signatures associated with paleosols, Pennsylvanian Holder Formation, New Mexico
 - 79 I. C. Scotchman. The geochemistry of concretions from the Kimmeridge Clay Formation of southern and eastern England
 - 107 Henry S. Chafetz, Patrick F. Rush and Nancy M. Utech. Microenvironmental controls on mineralogy and habit of CaCO_3 precipitates: an example from an active travertine system
 - 127 P. Bernier, Ch. Gaillard, J. C. Gall, G. Barale, J. P. Bourseau, E. Buffetaut and S. Wenz. Morphogenetic impact of microbial mats on surface structures of Kimmeridgian micritic limestones (Cerin, France)
 - 137 Koji Minoura, Shu Nakaya and Atsushi Takemura. Origin of manganese carbonates in Jurassic red shale, central Japan
 - 153 Kevin Purvis. Stoss-side mud-drapes: deposits of interdune pond margins
- DISCUSSIONS/REPLIES
- 157 R. J. Loch. Bedload transport of mud as pedogenic aggregates in modern and ancient rivers
 - 158 Brian R. Rust and Gerald C. Nanson. (Reply)
 - 161 N. J. Clifford, J. McClatchey and J. R. French. Measurements of turbulence in the benthic boundary layer over a gravel bed and Comparison between acoustic measurements and predictions of bedload transport of marine gravels
 - 166 J. J. Williams, P. D. Thorne and A. D. Heathershaw. (Reply)
 - 173 Jan H. Van den Berg. Comparison between acoustic measurements and predictions of the bedload transport of marine gravels
 - 175 Jon J. Williams, Peter D. Thorne and Anthony D. Heathershaw. (Reply)
 - 179 Book reviews
 - 191 Presentation of the Sorby Medal
 - 196 Report of the General Secretary
 - 197 Report of the Treasurer

199 Report of the Editors

203 Forthcoming papers

- 205 Philip M. Barnes and Keith B. Lewis. Sheet slides and rotational failures on a convergent margin: the Kidnappers Slide, New Zealand
- 223 Wolfgang Blendinger. Upper Triassic (Norian) cephalopod limestones of the Hallstatt-type, Oman
- 243 Luis Pomar. Reef geometries, erosion surfaces and high-frequency sea-level changes, upper Miocene Reef Complex, Mallorca, Spain
- 271 Julian E. Andrews, Michael S. Turner, Ghulam Nabi and Baruch Spiro. The anatomy of an early Dinantian terraced floodplain: palaeo-environment and early diagenesis
- 289 C. M. Bell. The relationships between sedimentary structures, transport directions and dune types in Mesozoic aeolian sandstones, Atacama Region, Chile
- 301 Tapan Chakraborty. Sedimentology of a Proterozoic erg: the Venkatpur Sandstone, Pranhita-Godavari Valley, south India
- 323 Noel P. James and Yvonne Bone. Origin of a cool-water, Oligo-Miocene deep shelf limestone, Eucla Platform, southern Australia
- 343 Joachim E. Amthor and Gerald M. Friedman. Dolomite-rock textures and secondary porosity development in Ellenberger Group carbonates (Lower Ordovician), west Texas and southeastern New Mexico
- 363 Steven W. Squyres, David W. Andersen, Susan S. Nedell and Robert A. Wharton, Jr. Lake Hoare, Antarctica: sedimentology through a thick perennial ice cover
- 380 Forthcoming papers

- 381 E. L. Winterer, C. V. Metzler and M. Sarti. Neptunian dykes and associated breccias (Southern Alps, Italy and Switzerland): role of gravity sliding in open and closed systems
- 405 Francis J. Hein, Gregory A. Robb, Andrew C. Wolberg and Frederick J. Longstaffe. Facies descriptions and associations in ancient reworked (?transgressive) shelf sandstones: Cambrian and Cretaceous examples
- 433 Mark H. Scheiing and Gerard C. Gaynor. The shelf sand-plume model: a critique
- 445 Roger Higgs. The Bude Formation (lower Westphalian), SW England: siliciclastic shelf sedimentation in a large equatorial lake
- 471 T. S. McCarthy, I. G. Stanistreet and B. Cairncross. The sedimentary dynamics of active fluvial channels on the Okavango fan, Botswana
- 489 Paul D. Komar and Paul A. Carling. Grain sorting in gravel-bed streams and the choice of particle sizes for flow-competence evaluations
- 503 Grzegorz Pienkowski. Eustatically-controlled sedimentation in the Hettangian-Sinemurian (Early Jurassic) of Poland and Sweden

- 519 Xiang Yang Chen, James M. Bowler and John W. Magee. Aeolian landscapes in central Australia: gypsiferous and quartz dune environments from Lake Amadeus
- 539 K. Purvis and V. P. Wright. Calcretes related to phreatophytic vegetation from the Middle Triassic Otter Sandstone of South West England
- 552 Forthcoming papers

- 553 Chris Paola and Leon Borgman. Reconstructing random topography from preserved stratification
- 567 P. G. DeCelles, M. B. Gray, K. D. Ridgway, R. B. Cole, D. A. Pivnik, N. Pequera and P. Srivastava. Controls on synorogenic alluvial-fan architecture, Beartooth Conglomerate (Palaeocene), Wyoming and Montana
- 591 A. M. Smith and T. R. Mason. Pleistocene, multiple-growth, lacustrine oncoids from the Poacher's Point Formation, Etosha Pan, northern Namibia
- 601 Arthur H. Saller and Clyde H. Moore, Jr. Geochemistry of meteoric calcite cements in some Pleistocene limestones
- 623 M. Hennebert and A. Lees. Environmental gradients in carbonate sediments and rocks detected by correspondence analysis: examples from the Recent of Norway and the Dinantian of southwest England
- 643 Gordon M. Walkden and David O. Williams. The diagenesis of the late Dinantian Derbyshire-East Midland carbonate shelf, central England
- 671 Peter Vrolijk and Simon M. F. Sheppard. Syntectonic carbonate veins from the Barbados accretionary prism (ODP leg 110): record of palaeohydrology
- 691 Szczepan J. Porebski, Dieter Meischner and Krzysztof Görlich. Quaternary mud turbidites from the South Shetland Trench (West Antarctica): recognition and implications for turbidite facies modelling
- 717 George C. Anastakis and David J. W. Piper. The character of seismo-turbidites in the S-1 sapropel, Zakynthos and Strofadhies basins, Greece
- 735 Gary J. Brierley. Floodplain sedimentology of the Squamish River, British Columbia: relevance of element analysis
- 751 Gary Kocurek, Karen G. Havholm, Max Deynoux and Ronald C. Blakey. Amalgamated accumulations resulting from climatic and eustatic changes, Akchar Erg, Mauritania
- 773 Forthcoming papers

- 775 Shane M. Pelechaty, Noel P. James, Charles Kerans and John P. Grotzinger. A middle Proterozoic palaeokarst unconformity and associated sedimentary rocks, Elu Basin, northwest Canada
- 799 Robert Riding, José M. Martín and Juan Carlos Braga. Coral-stromatolite reef framework, Upper Miocene, Almería, Spain
- 819 Julian C. Baker. Diagenesis and reservoir quality of the Aldebaran Sandstone, Denison Trough, east-central Queensland, Australia
- 839 R. S. J. Sparks, S. N. Carey and H. Sigurdsson. Sedimentation from gravity currents generated by turbulent plumes

- 857 Guoqiu Gao and Lynton S. Land. Nodular chert from the Arbuckle Group, Slick Hills, SW Oklahoma: a combined field, petrographic and isotopic study
- 871 Evan K. Franseen and Carol Mankiewicz. Depositional sequences and correlation of middle(?) to late Miocene carbonate complexes, Las Negras and Nijar areas, southeastern Spain
- 899 Mark Wilkinson. The concretions of the Bearerraig Sandstone Formation: geometry and geochemistry
- 913 Indranil Banerjee and Susan M. Kidwell. Significance of molluscan shell beds in sequence stratigraphy: an example from the Lower Cretaceous Manville Group of Canada
- 935 Paul M. Myrow and Richard N. Hiscott. Shallow-water gravity-flow deposits, Chapel Island Formation, southeast Newfoundland, Canada
- 961 Book reviews
- 973 Forthcoming papers

- 975 Jianjun Zeng, Donald R. Lowe, David B. Prior, William J. Wiseman, Jr and Brian D. Bornhold. Flow properties of turbidity currents in Bute Inlet, British Columbia
- 997 Simon P. Todd and David J. Went. Lateral migration of sand-bed rivers: examples from the Devonian Glashabeg Formation, SW Ireland and the Cambrian Alderney Sandstone Formation, Channel Islands
- 1021 Richard E. Ll. Collier and Jill Thompson. Transverse and linear dunes in an Upper Pleistocene marine sequence, Corinth Basin, Greece
- 1041 Christoph Spötl and Stephen J. Burns. Formation of ^{18}O -depleted dolomite within a marine evaporitic sequence, Triassic Reichenhall Formation, Austria
- 1059 J. J. G. Reijmer, W. G. H. Z. Ten Kate, A. Sprenger and W. Schlager. Calciturbidite composition related to exposure and flooding of a carbonate platform (Triassic, Eastern Alps)
- 1075 Lucio Lirer and Anna Vinci. Grain-size distributions of pyroclastic deposits
- 1085 Daniela Fontana. Detrital carbonate grains as provenance indicators in the Upper Cretaceous Pietraforte Formation (northern Apennines)
- 1097 Keith B. Miller. An undulatory discontinuity surface on a gently inclined muddy ramp: possible evidence of secondary helical flow from the geological record
- 1113 Mark Quine and Dan Bosence. Stratal geometries, facies and sea-floor erosion in Upper Cretaceous Chalk, Normandy, France
- 1153 Bartholomew Nagy, Lois Anne Nagy, Mark J. Rigali, William D. Jones, David H. Krinsley and Norval A. Sinclair. Rock varnish in the Sonoran Desert: microbiologically mediated accumulation of manganese-rich sediments

DISCUSSION/REPLY

- 1173 Peter D. Lewis, Robert I. Thompson, James W. Haggart and Catherine J. Hickson. Sedimentology and tectonic implications of Cretaceous fan-delta conglomerates, Queen Charlotte Islands, Canada
- 1179 Roger Higgs. (Reply)
- 1183 Book reviews
- 1187 Forthcoming papers
